CHAUTAUQUA

"My Experiences in The French Trenches"

Illustrated With Stereopticon Views

By Lieutenant Donald McGibney

LIEUTENANT DONALD MCGIBNEY is an American boy who went to Turkey to teach in an American college. When the European war broke out he was taken with other refugees on the battleship Tennessee to France, where he enlisted in the French ambulance corps. For seven and a half long months he was at the front and personally carried between 1,500 and 2,000 wounded soldiers from the trenches to the hospital bases. He is now on leave of absence and will deliver two lectures on the second day of our Chautauqua, one an illustrated lecture with stereopticon views made from photographs taken by him personally.

TWO ADDRESSES THE SECOND DAY OF OUR CHAUTAUQUA

OTHER ATTRACTIONS

TWO lectures by Charles F. Stalker, a Chautauqua lecturer of many years experience; two lectures by Dr. William H. Kent on "Building Up the Home Town"; two entertainments by Irwin "Prince of Magic"; and two musical concerts each by Minetti, the Italian piano-accompanist; The Capital City Concert Company; and The Dicksons, a quartette composed of a mother and her three musical sons.

Coming For Our Chautauqua

TWO of the most interesting numbers on our Chautauqua program will be the concerts on the last lay by "The Dicksons," a quartette consisting of mother and three sons. Mrs. Dickson is an accomplished singer and the sons from earliest childhood have been instructed in music both instrumental and vocal. Their program in both the afternoon and evening is made up of vocal solos, duets and quartettes, combined with instrumental selections on the violin, clarinet, piano and cello, singly and together. They have had many years experience on the Chautauqua platform and have so perfected their concert that the audience never tires but thoroughly enjoys and appreciates their numbers. Lovers of music should not miss these concerts on the last day.

MINNETTI, HERE FOR OUR CHAUTAUQUA

TWO many people the soft, silvery tones of the wonderful piano-accompanist, which closely resemble the tones of a pipe-organ, are the most pleasing of all musical selections. Angelo Minetti, the young Italian who appears on the second day of our Chautauqua program, with an instrument that cost him almost one thousand dollars, puts into his playing all of the vigor and expression that is peculiar to his race. There are only six of these instruments in America All should hear him.

Gives Two Illustrated Lectures The First Day

CHARLES F. STALKER, entertainer and orator who appears on the first day of our Chautauqua program, has been pleasing Chautauqua audiences for eleven years. Those who miss his interesting Chalk Talks will always regret it.

IRWIN, PRINCE OF MAGIC

Who Will Be Here on the Second Day of Our

CHAUTAUQUA

EVERYBODY COME!

EVERY man, woman and child in this community should plan now to attend our Welfare Chautauqua, the dates for which are announced below. There will be entertainment, instructions and inspiration for all. Some of the leading attractions are as follows: Two popular lectures by Charles F. Stalker, a Chautauqua lecturer of many years experience; two lectures, one illustrated with stereopticon views by Lieutenant Donald McGibney, on his experiences in the French trenches; two lectures by Dr. William H. Kent, on "Building Up the Home Town"; two entertainments by Irwin "Prince of Magic"; and two musical concerts each by Minetti, the Italian piano-accompanist; the Capital City Concert Company; and The Dicksons, a quartette composed of a mother and her three musical sons. The program is a lively and entertaining one throughout, and offers a rare treat to the people of this community.
